

OXBOND N1 Polishing Paste

It is a super high cost performance polishing paste product for composite material products of FRP molds and product surface polishing products.

Oxbond N1 Polishing Paste is a special wax blend designed for the composite materials industry to provide high brightness AIDS to molds and products.

Scope of use:

Widely used in FRP molds, carbon fiber products, yachts, fishing boats, auto parts, rail transportation, sanitary ware and other fields.

Oxbond N1 polishing paste

Product features:

1. Quick removal of medium sand mark defects
2. Lubricate the surface to improve product brightness
3. Water environmental protection without pungent odor

Product application:

This product with mechanical grinding, can remove stains, wear marks.

Quickly reduce the grinding mark, reduce the amount of polish.

Especially for polished parts with wax, it is convenient to protect.

Usage skills:

Used with rotary polishing machine and wool disc (N4000).

Packing specification :1.89L/ pail 6 cans/box